

Duration: 1 Hour

Max Marks: 40

Instructions:

1. All main questions are compulsory with internal choice.
2. Figures to the right indicate maximum marks.
3. Illustrate your answers with suitable examples/diagrams.

Q.1. Answer ANY FIVE of the following

(5x2=10)

- A. Mass Tourism
- B. Watershed management
- C. National family welfare Programme
- D. Waste products
- E. Vermi composting
- F. Eutrophication

Q.2. A. Exposure to soil containing high concentrations of benzene increases the risk of contracting leukaemia. With reference to the statement explain the effects of soil pollution with its control measures.

(10)

OR

X. As an individual how are you going to prevent pollution and environmental degradation at local level.

(5)

Y. Discuss any two control measures adopted for urban and industrial waste management.

(5)

Q.3. A. India is a pioneer in provision of Environment Protection Acts. Justify the statement by explaining any four types of environmental laws.

(10)

OR

X. Discuss the various issues related to Displacement, Resettlement and Rehabilitation.

(5)

Y. Our world faces serious water shortages. With reference to the statement explain the concept of rain water harvesting along with its types.

(5)

Q.4. A. AIDS patients have to undergo a gradual deterioration process to death. Defend the statement with the various causes of HIV/aids along with its remedial measures.

(10)

OR

X. Briefly explain the role of information and technology in human health.

(5)

Y. Write a short note on types of Tourism.

(5)