Q2. Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow: (10)

Failure is the highway to success. Tom Watson Sr. said, "If you want to succeed, double your failure rate". If you study history, you will find that all stories of success are also stories of great failures. But people don't see the failures. They only see one side of the picture and they say that the person got lucky. He must have been at the right place at the right time."

There was a man who was defeated in a legislative race at the age of 22, had a nervous breakdown at age 27, lost a senatorial race at age 45, failed in an effort to become Vice- President at age 47, lost a senatorial race at age 49 and was elected President of the United States at age 52. This man was Abraham Lincoln. Would you call him a failure? He could have quit. But to Lincoln, defeat was a detour and not a dead end.

A New York Times editorial on December 10, 1903, questioned the wisdom of the Wright Brothers who were trying to invent a machine, heavier than air that would fly. One week later, at Kitty Hawk, the Wright Brothers took their famous flight.

Colonel Sanders, at the age of 65, with a beat-up car and a $ 100 cheque from Social Security, realized he had to do something. He remembered his mother's recipe and went out selling. How many doors did he have to knock on before he got his first order? It is estimated that he had knocked on more than a thousand doors before he got his first order.

As a young cartoonist, Walt Disney faced many rejections from newspaper editors, who said he had no talent. One day a minister at a church hired him to draw some cartoons. Disney was working out of a small mouse infested shed near the church. After seeing a small mouse, he was inspired. That was the start of Mickey Mouse.

One day a partially deaf four year old kid came home with a note in his pocket from his teacher, "Your Tommy is too stupid to learn, get him out of the school." His mother read the note and answered, "My Tommy is not stupid to learn, I will teach him myself." And that Tommy grew up to be the great Thomas Alva Edison. Thomas Alva Edison had only three months of formal schooling and he was partially deaf.

Do you consider these people failures? They succeeded in spite of problems, not in the absence of them. But to the outside world, it appears as though they just got lucky. Successful people don't do great things; they only do small things in a great way. They move on.

All success stories are stories of great failures. The only difference is that every time they failed, they bounced back. This is called failing forward, rather than backward. You learn and move forward. Learn from your failure and keep moving.

- (a) This passage states that failure _____ (1)

- (b) Mention two important lessons that you learn from the successful people who had tasted great failures. (4)
- (c) What is meant by 'failing forward'? (2)
- (d) Give two examples from the passage to illustrate that every success story is also a story of great failure. (2)
- (e) After seeing a small mouse, Walt Disney was inspired. The word inspired means the same as _____. (1)
